ON
DIPLOMATIC STAFF TRAINING COOPERATION

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the R.O.C. (Taiwan) (hereinafter referred to as "the MOFA") and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade of Belize (hereinafter referred to as "the MFA"), desiring to establish and develop cooperation regarding joint research and diplomatic staff training, have reached the following understanding:

Article 1 - General Purpose

The purpose of this Agreement is to help to create conditions for maintaining regular contacts and promoting cooperation between the MOFA and the MFA. The cooperation will be based on reciprocity and mutual benefit.

Article 2 - Priority of Cooperation

The MOFA and the MFA give priority to joint research, introduction and elaboration of modern methods for training diplomats and specialists in the areas of foreign policy, international relations and other relevant areas. The MOFA and the MFA intend to keep each other informed on matters related to research and teaching techniques in the above-mentioned areas and to exchange relevant literature and publications.

Article 3 - Scope of Cooperation

Cooperation under this Agreement may include:

(a) joint operation of basic and specialized training courses;
(b) exchange of teaching materials;
(c) exchange of young scholars or diplomats with a view to upgrading their qualifications;
(d) exchange of knowledge and experience concerning the organization of teaching in academic institutions;
(e) joint consultations on foreign language courses;
(f) exchange of experts for participation in conferences, symposia, and panel discussions in each other's country;
(g) carrying out of joint projects in areas of mutual interests;
(h) organization of meetings on issues of mutual interest between representatives of the MOFA and the MFA;
(i) any other form of cooperation that may be jointly decided upon by the MOFA and the MFA.

Article 4 - Financial Dispositions

The MOFA and the MFA shall cover their own costs incurred from the implementation of this cooperation, unless otherwise arranged.

Article 5 - Dispute Resolution

Any difference arising from the implementation or interpretation of this Agreement shall be resolved amicably by consultation or negotiation between the MOFA and the MFA.

Article 6 - Effectiveness, Termination and Amendments

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of signature. It may be terminated by either Party upon 3 months' prior written notice to the other party.

2. This Agreement may be amended at any time by mutual consent in writing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorized thereto by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.
